To Learn To Love To Serve

DECLARATION FORM

INTRODUCTION

These rules are meant to serve as a guide to student's life and community expectations at St Peter Claver High School. Their purpose is to foster the personal and integral growth of students in leading principled lives as they engage in the school motto of learning, loving and serving for the greater glory of God (HB, 27)

1. Every student is expected to attend every mandated activity in the school calendar and all formal activities such as: daily Mass, assembly, classes, meals, school baraza, recreation, sports, clubs, and so on.
2. Students are expected to respect the daily order and to arrive at each of the daily activity on time.
3. A student must always show total respect of self and others, above all to all the staff members.
4. All students are expected to dress in proper school uniform during class time and actually all the time while at school and wear shamba dress only on specified days and hours. Students are also to be in full school uniform while going home and reporting to school.
5. Cheating of any kind on academic matters is strictly forbidden and serious disciplinary measures will be taken against the culprit.
6. The school expects its students to use English as a medium of communication all the time and everywhere in the school compound including dormitories.
7. Students perform two forms of community service: internal to the school community and external to the wider community. Students must not avoid their duty to serve others.
8. At all times students should be at the right place, at the right time and doing the right thing with the right person.
9. Students must not engage in behaviours that are harmful to themselves or others.
10. Any form of harassment or bullying and other threatening behaviours like fighting, possessing weapons, physical or verbal threatening are strictly forbidden.
11. Sexual practices and romantic relationships among the students or between students and staff members are strictly forbidden.
12. No student will leave the campus without permission from the right school authority.
13. Any destruction, defacement or unauthorised marking of school property, one's property or property belonging to another person is strictly forbidden.
14. Carelessness is not entertained at St Peter Claver High School. Students are required to write their names or put marks on every piece of their personal properties and take good care of them.
15. The school expects its students to be committed to the truth at all costs.
16. Littering of any sort is forbidden and all rubbish should be disposed of properly.
17. Students are not allowed to bring any illegal items to school.

18. Students should be respectful of other students who desire to study and sleep in silence and peace.
19. When a parent/guardian visits the school, the following must be observed: During office hours, items brought to students should be left at the Dean of students' office; students are not supposed to receive or escort visitors without permission; no visits allowed during weekends.
20. No food will be carried out of the MPH and the MPH and its environments must be kept clean at all times.
21. Students must comply with all the rules and regulations of the dormitory.
22. All assignments must be completed and submitted on time.
